I can not believe Vincent and his men went through this entire dungeon and only lost one more man, bringing the total count to three. I admit, we are both confused to find such a nice room in a nasty dungeon, and they have gone to dispose of their friend's body while one inept guard stays behind to watch me. I write this in haste in hopes someone is following my trail, and to let them know they are on the right path.
